Re: Case Number 3:13-cv-00300-bbc

Dear Judge Crabb:

Previously I received a notice regarding being a defendant in the above referenced case. A reply was requested, which I completed and mailed promptly to the address indicated. The next notice I received regarding the case was that an entry of default was entered due to failing to appear. I had moved on 12/16/2013 and, consequently, did not receive any notice of a court date. I ask the court that an entry of default not be entered against me. The "Notice of Electronic Filing" I received indicated a default hearing set for 1/29/2014 at 8:30 am. I would like to ask to appear by phone at this court date. Please contact me to inform me of the procedure for appearing by phone.

I have also included with this letter a copy of the reply letter sent to the plaintiff's counsel on November 1, 2013.

Respectfully,

Carrie Luehne

Re: Civil Action No.: 13-cv-300-slc

Included is my response to the complaint of copyright infringement by the plaintiff, TCYK, LLC. Prior to receiving this Summons I was not familiar with the movie "The Company You Keep". I have not downloaded, purchased, owned, nor watched this movie. In addition, I am unaware of how to download a movie "using a network called a 'BitTorrent protocol' or 'Torrent'". I do use a wireless router to connect to the internet, which I am told, if not secured, can be used by anyone within range of the router to access the internet. I have since added a password in order to connect to my wireless router.

I can assure your firm and client that I did not infringe upon any copyright and ask that you remove my name from your civil action.

Respectfully,
